

Sea Cabin

A Coastal Stays property on the Port Ellery shore

A timber cabin on the rocks above Skerry Cove, with the sea on three sides and nothing but gulls for neighbours. Built in 1962 and rebuilt in 2019 around the original stone chimney.

Sleeps 6 across two bedrooms and a loft, so a family or two couples fit comfortably. Nightly rates start at $250 (USD) in low season.

Pets are welcome: there is a fenced garden and a dog wash by the door.

Highlights

- Wood-fired sauna on the deck
- Hot tub with a view of the cove
- Two sea kayaks and paddles in the boathouse
- Fast wifi and a full kitchen
- Parking for two cars, with an EV charger
